What we've learned so far...

Microsoft Teams is a communications platform and is part of the Office 365 products.

You, as a PKDF volunteer, have access to the Teams platform through your O365 account.

Teams is very similar to Zoom but offers a few features that may be beneficial to you in your volunteer role.

Community Meetings will be hosted on the Teams platform

Teams can be used for local volunteer planning calls, too!

Community Meeting Process

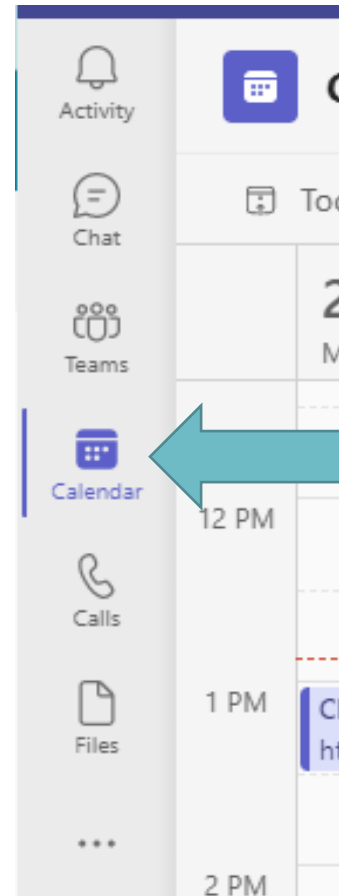

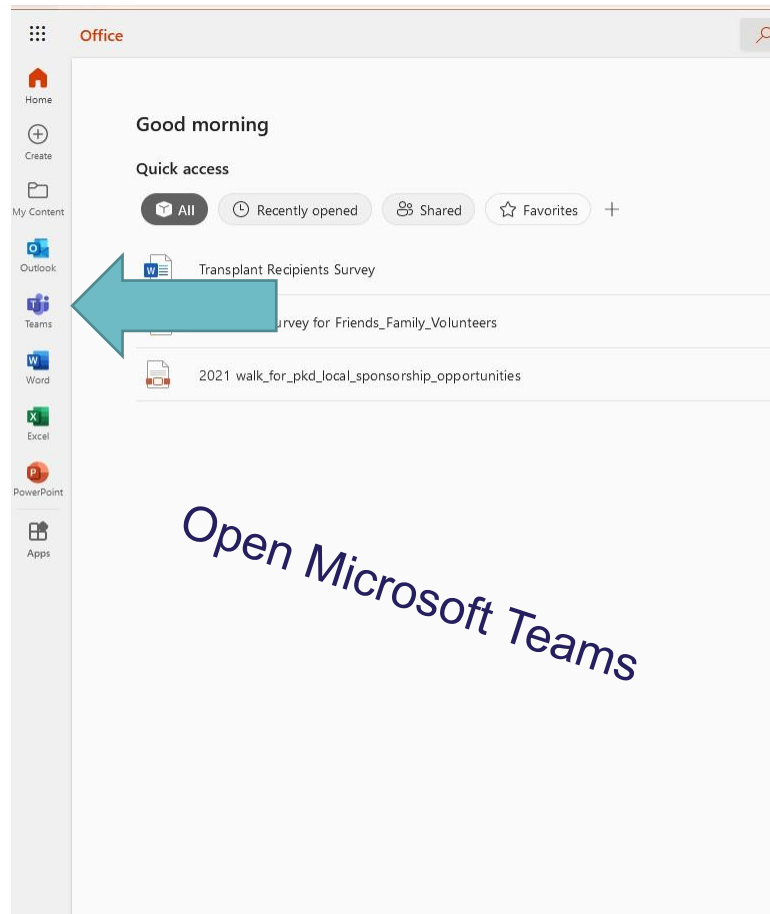

Your first Teams Community Meeting

- Submit a volunteer event submission form
- PKDF will add the meeting to your Community Teams calendar
- Teams link to join the meeting will be provided in the registration confirmation email
- Teams link will also be provided in the meeting reminder
- Attendees do not need an MT account to join

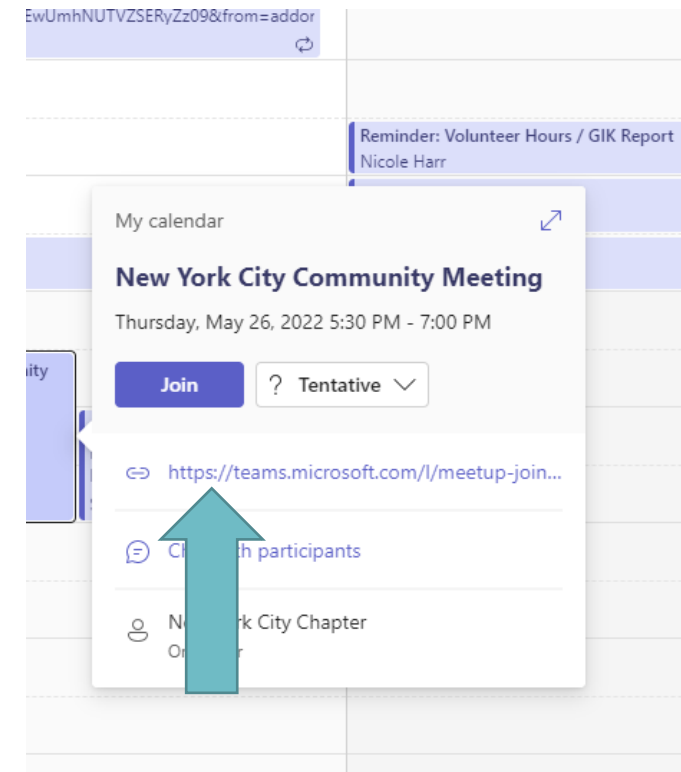

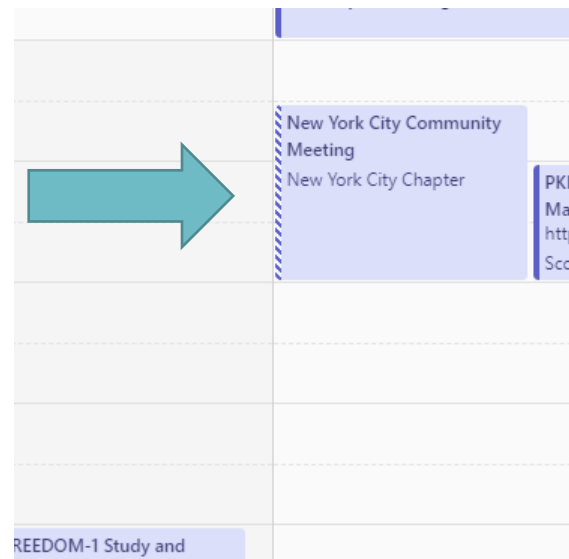

Let's find your calendar in Teams

Starting your Community Meeting

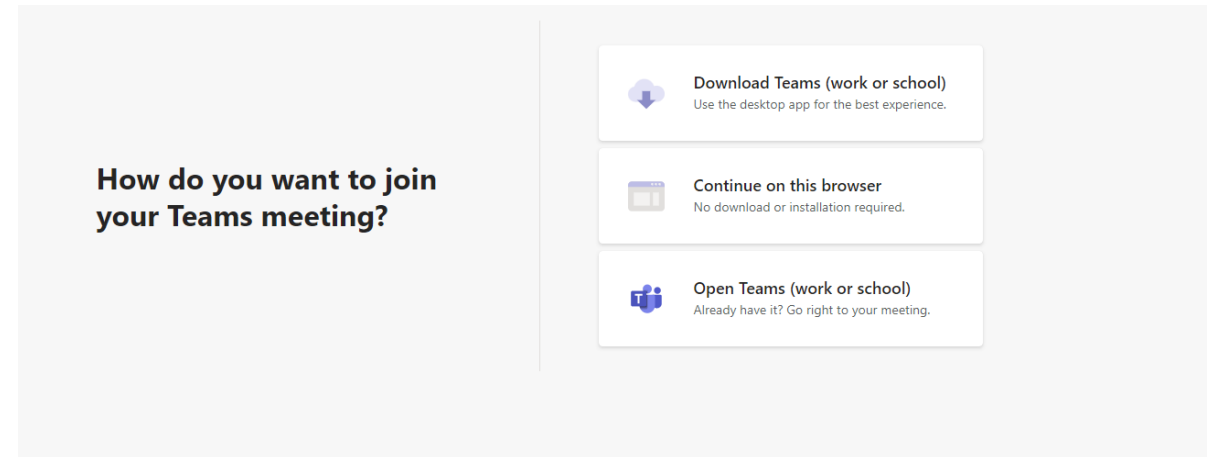

- Login to your O365 account
- Navigate to your calendar
- Click on the meeting link

What if I already have a Teams account?

If you have a personal / work Teams account, as the host, you need to sign out of your personal / work account and sign into your PKDF O365 account.

Attendees can use personal / work accounts or continue on their browser.
